NOVEMBER 2020

Dear Members

At the time of writing this newsletter, I note that we are on day 212 of the national lockdown and hope that all are still safe and well!

After much consideration, your committee has made the decision not to resume our meetings and outings at this stage, due to the following reasons:

- We remain concerned about the safety and well-being of our members and would not like to expose them to any risk
- Our meeting venue, the Newton Park Library auditorium has apparently been flooded and will not be fit for use until the new year

We will however re-look at the situation early in the new year.

Also note that there will be no Christmas Luncheon arranged for this year

VIRTUAL PRESENTATIONS

In the month of October the East London U3A branch were kind enough to invite us to join two virtual presentations, a talk on "Poor Man's Orient Express" and a Cookery demonstration. I found both very interesting and entertaining! If we receive similar invites in future, those on the mailing list will be sent the link.

AGM

Our AGM should have taken place in May of this year, but obviously due to circumstances this could not happen. The committee has therefore decided that we will postpone this until 2021. Members will be given sufficient notice prior to this.

ADDO ELEPHANT RESERVE

A reminder that admission is free during the week of 16 – 20 November
