SEPTEMBER 2020

Greetings to all our members!

Your committee trusts that all is well with you and your loved ones and that all are adapting well to this very different lifestyle that has been imposed on us.

Below is a message from our Chairman, Marjorie Malkin:

“We have just entered into our second month in Level Two of lock down, however still with a restriction on gatherings of more than fifty, thus precluding our monthly meetings.

Hopefully, there is a glimmer of hope that normality – whatever that is – will shortly be returned to us. I suspect when we are released from lock down, life will not be the same as before.

As one day seems to merge in to another, as your Chairman I am beginning to see welcome signs emerging. We can once again enjoy walking at our magnificent beach fronts and parks. One other positive consequence of our religious hand washing appears to be that this winter we have had fewer coughs and colds!

Now for some future activities in Port Elizabeth:

- 1. 14 to 19 September is International Coastal Clean Up Week. People all over the world will be helping to clean up the beach nearest them in an effort to reduce the amount of litter. Here in Port Elizabeth, WESSA and Zwartkops Conservancy are both organising clean-ups.

1.1 WESSA – Saturday 19 September from 9h30 to 12h00 at the Beacon in Summerstrand, intersection of Marine Drive and Admiralty Way. The longer time will enable participants to come and go as they choose.

1.2 Zwartkops Conservancy – 19 September at 9h30. Meet at Bluewater Bay swimming beach at the bottom of Weinronk Way. Bring own gloves

- 2. 16 to 20 November – Free admission to the Addo Elephant Reserve “

LAST WORD

- I never thought the comment “I wouldn't touch him/her with a 6 foot pole would become a national policy, but here we are”
- The dumbest thing I've ever purchased is a 2020 planner!

Anon

Keep well

Merlene
