NOVEMBER 2017

I can't believe that this season has crept up on us so quickly and I'm sure that many of us are saying once again 'My, how this year has flown!'

Our November meeting will be the last meeting for the year, after which the committee will take a break until January.

28 NOVEMBER MEETING – 10h00 – 11h00. Lloyd Edwards from Raggy Charters

Lloyd Edwards owner runs Raggy Charters and has been doing so for over 20 years. The company specialises in taking tourists on ocean safaris to view the whales, dolphins, penguins and other natural wonders of Algoa Bay.

He will have his beautiful 2018 calenders which make lovely gifts, for sale at the meeting. The A3 size is R200 and A4 is R150. See the full calender on the website.

30 JANUARY MEETING – Dr Margaret de Koker on 'Does Your Brain have to Age?' which deals with the prevention of dementia.

27 FEBRUARY MEETING: Liz Eshmeade, genealogist, on 'The True Stories of the 1820 Settlers'.

OUTINGS

DECEMBER: No outing

JANUARY: No outing

FEBRUARY: Visit to Mark Marshall's Sandula Conservation – details unconfirmed

MARCH: A cruise on the Sunday's River – details unconfirmed

2018 SUBS

Avoid the queues in January and either pay your 2018 subs at the November meeting (come earlier though), or via EFT. The subs remain R50 per person if paid before April, thereafter it will be R60.
