JUNE 2018

COMMITTEE NEWS:

Well the good news is that our U3A branch in Port Elizabeth is able to continue operating!

This is due to the fact that our previously rather lean committee was increased by three after they were nominated from the floor at our AGM on 29 May.

We therefore welcome Lynda Connellan, Sheila Forrest and Philip Stunden to our committee and hope that you will find time spent with us to be rewarding.

Our committee therefore comprises:

Chairman: Marjorie Malkin

Vice-chairman: Sheila Forrest

Treasurer: Debbie Morris

Secretary: Merlene Robinson

Membership Secretary: Philip Stunden

Speaker Co-ordinator: Pam Lewis

Outings Co-ordinator/Interest Group Co-ordinator: Lynda Connellan

26 JUNE MEETING: 10h00 to 11h00. Ken Munro

Ken Munro will share with us his research into 'Code Breaking at Bletchley Hall during the Second World War'.

Ken sums up his talk as follows:

'In 1996 my aunt died and what was found in her retirement cottage set me off on a search to find the reason she had been one of first two women to ever attend a medal parade in South Africa and why at that parade she was presented with an MBE.'

31 JULY MEETING:

Melitta Wessels will address us on 'There is Wisdom in my Hairdryer' – What is your hairdryer or what is in your hairdryer? Come and find out all about Enneagrams (personality profiling) and PNI (Psycho Neuro Immunology) which is the study of the effect of the mind on the body.

JULY OUTING: - Friday 13 July at 10h00

One of our members Richard Tomlinson, will conduct a visit to the World War 2 Gun Battery at the Algoa Military Base, Brookes Hill.

If you'd like to join us, please put your name down on the list at the meeting.

2018 SUBS

A reminder to those who have not yet paid their 2018 subs, this will now cost you R60.

NEWSLETTERS

If you would like to have your newsletter e-mailed to you, please fill in the form at the next meeting, writing your e-mail address VERY CLEARLY.

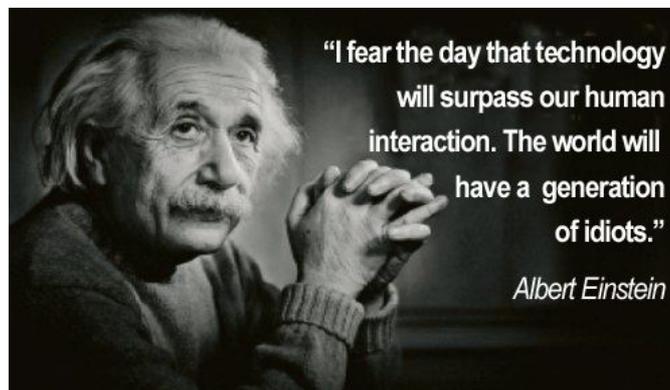

CHARITY DONATIONS – SANTA:

Committee member, Pam Lewis will now be in charge of charity donations, and has asked that for the next three months we concentrate on donating unwanted blankets and clothing, which she will take to SANTA in Newton Park. Goods donated will be distributed through the clinics.

So please drop off your unwanted goods in the containers in the foyer at our meetings.

LAST WORD:

I've used this before, but have a strong urge to use it again!

See you at the meeting
Merlene
